To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Angleſey.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, aſſembled at a General County Meeting, purſuant to Notice advertized by the Sheriff, preſume to approach the Throne with the warmeſt Aſſurances of our Fidelity and Attachment to your Perſon and Government.

We rejoice that your Majeſty has diſmiſſed from your Service thoſe Men who were divided in Principles, and united only to create to themſelves new and unconſtitutional Powers, equally injurious to the Prerogatives of the Crown, and the Rights of your People.

We alſo beg Leave to offer our moſt ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's late Appointment of Miniſters, whoſe Wiſdom and Integrity afford us the firmeſt Confidence that thoſe Meaſures which are moſt conducive to the Honor of the Crown, and the true Intereſt and Happineſs of your People, will now be uniformly and vigorouſly purſued.

And as we hold the true Exertion of your Royal Prerogative no leſs ſacred than the Conſtitutional Rights

Rights of your Subjects, we pledge ourſelves, on all Occaſions with our Lives and Fortunes, to maintain and preſerve both equally inviolate.

Signed by Order of the Meeting,

Morgan Jones, Sheriff.

The following Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Liverpool, has been preſented to the King by Henry Rawlinſon, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Town, accompanied by Owen Salisbury Brereton, Eſq; Recorder, Sir Thomas Egerton, Bart. one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County Palatine of Lancaſter, Mr. Sparling, Mr. Dawſon, and Mr. Wilding, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants and other Principal Inabitants reſiding in the Town of Liverpool, in the County Palatine of Lancaſter, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne with the Aſſurance of our moſt cordial Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family, and Government.

Senſible we are of the great Bleſſings derived to this Nation by the happy Conſtitution which was eſtabliſhed at the late Revolution; and under the ſtrongeſt Perſuaſion and Conviction that it is your Majeſty's moſt earneſt and gracious Intention to preſerve that Conſtitution pure and inviolable, we beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our moſt humble and hearty Thanks for the late Exertion of your undoubted and lawful Prerogative, in placing at the Head of Public Affairs Men, who, we doubt not, will prove themſelves worthy of their diſtinguiſhed Appointments; and we aſſure your Majeſty that we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, maintain and ſupport the juſt and lawful Prerogatives of your Crown; and that it is our ſincere and hearty Prayer that you may enjoy a long and happy Reign over a free, loyal, and grateful People.

The following Addreſs of the Principal Inhabitabitants and Freemen of the Town of Bedford, has been preſented to the King by Sir William Wake, Bart. and Samuel Whitbread, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Town, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Principal Inhabitants and Freemen of the Town of Bedford, humbly approach your Majeſty's Preſence at this very important Criſis, to expreſs, in the moſt public Manner, our Gratitude to your Majeſty for having been graciouſly pleaſed to comply with the Wiſhes of your People, by removing from your Royal Perſon and Councils, an Adminiſtration, who in Violation of the moſt Sacred Principles of the Conſtitution, preſumed not only to propoſe, but to urge, with the utmoſt Violence and Precipitation, a Meaſure ſubverſive of the Rights and Immunities of your Majeſty's Subjects, and in the higheſt Degree derogatory to your Majeſty's Prerogative; a Meaſure obviouſly tending to deſtroy the Balance ſubſiſting between the different Branches of the Legiſlature, and to erect an independent and formidable Power, unprecedented in its Origin, and moſt alarming in its Conſequences.

We alſo, with all Humility and Deference, declare to your Majeſty our full Confidence in, and entire Approbation of thoſe Miniſters to whom your Majeſty has now entruſted the great executive Offices of Government, and given ſo decided and honourable a Support; and we are firmly perſuaded that ſuch Exertions of your Majeſty's undoubted and Conſtitutional Prerogative, as may be deemed neceſſary to give Force and Efficacy to your Majeſty's Determinations, will be highly acceptable to your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, and will meet with their moſt zealous Concurrence; and we truſt that the unremitted Efforts of a wiſe and upright Adminiſtration will, under the Favour of Divine Providence, operate to the ſpeedy and total Removal of thoſe complicated Diſtractions which have been unhappily ſo long prevalent in theſe Kingdoms, and we moſt ardently wiſh that the juſt and conſtitutional Prerogative of the Crown ſo wantonly invaded, and the Rights and Privileges of the Subject ſo daringly attacked, may deſcend unimpaired and undiminiſhed to the remoteſt Poſterity.

In Teſtimony whereof we have hereunto ſubſcribed our Names, this Fourth Day of March, in the Year of our Lord Chriſt 1784, at a General Meeting called by publick Advertiſement.

[Signed by 207 Perſons.]

The Two following Addreſſes have been preſented to the King by Henry Duncombe, Eſq; one of the Repreſentative in Parliament for the County of York, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Doncaſter, beg Leave to approach the Throne, to aſſure your Majeſty, that it is with the utmoſt Concern we obſerve the unhappy Diſputes in Parliament, which fomented by Party, and agitated with Violence, not only interrupt (at this critical Time) the National Buſineſs, but endanger the true Principles of the Conſtitution, in the Maintenance of which we are deeply concerned. Anxious as we are for the Preſervation of your Majeſty's juſt Prerogative, we are not leſs ſo for the real and conſtitutional Rights of the other Two Branches of the Legiſlature; and however favourable we may think of the Inſtitution of a Houſe of Commons, and feel ourſelves intereſted in ſupporting its juſt Rights, yet we think ourſelves called upon to declare, that any Attempt (however diſguiſed) to wreſt from the Crown the real Power of appointing to the Offices of executive Government, and placing it in that Houſe, appears to us neither Conſtitutional or likely to be productive of the Public Welfare: And the well timed Exerciſe of your juſt Prerogative, in diſmiſſing from your Council thoſe Miniſters, by whom the late bold Attempt to annihilate the Chartered Rights of the Eaſt-India Company was made and ſupported, furniſhes a ſtill additional Reaſon why we ought not to wiſh the Crown to be deprived of its due Authority. And we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall ever be ready to ſupport ſuch legal Exerciſe of your Prerogative, as may beſt tend to give Strength and Vigour to your Government, and ſecure the juſt Rights of the Crown, and the Liberties of your People.

Given under our Common Seal, the 5th Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-four.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, Inhabitants of Rotherham in the County of York, beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty that we obſerve, with the utmoſt Concern, the unhappy Diſputes in Parliament, which, fomented by Party, and agitated with Violence, not only interrupt the National Buſineſs, but endanger the true Principles of the Conſtitution, in the Maintenance of which we are all deeply intereſted:—The Preſervation of your Majeſty's juſt Prerogative, and the real and Conſtitutional Rights of the other Branches of the Legiſlature, are Objects for which we are equally anxious; we venerate, as we ought, the Inſtitution of a Houſe of Commons, but think the Evils ariſing from the preſent unequal Repreſentation of the People in that Houſe, have ſeldom been more ſeverely felt than at this Time; and although we are much intereſted to ſupport that Part of the Conſtitution in the

juſt Exerciſe of its legal Powers, yet we feel ourſelves now called upon to declare, that any Attempt (however artfully diſguiſed) to wreſt from the Crown its real and undoubted Right of appointing to the Offices of executive Government, and placing it in the Houſe of Commons, appears to us neither Conſtitutional, or likely to be agreeable to the Wiſhes of your People; and the attentive Regard which your Majeſty has ſhewn for the Preſervation of the Rights and Property of your Subjects, in the diſcreet and prudent Uſe which you have lately made of your Power to diſmiſs and appoint Miniſters, furniſhes a ſtill additional Reaſon why we ought not to wiſh the Crown to be deprived of it: And we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty that we will ſupport ſuch legal Exerciſe of your Prerogative, as may be neceſſary to put an End to the preſent alarming Conteſts, and to ſecure the juſt Rights of the Crown, and the Liberties of your People.

The following Addreſs of the Grand Jury of the County of Bucks, has been preſented to the King by Edmund Waller, Eſq; accompanied by Henry Thomas Gott, Eſq; Thomas Backhouſe, Eſq; and John Freemantle, Eſq; being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Grand Jury of the County of Bucks, aſſembled at Ayleſbury, March 8, 1784.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Grand Jury of the County of Bucks, beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our moſt zealous Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family and Government.

Convinced that the Preſervation of our Conſtitution and Liberties depend on the free Uſe of the legal Powers of the Crown, we humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our determined Reſolution to ſupport your Majeſty in the juſt Exertion of your Royal Prerogative.

We preſume to expreſs our grateful Senſe of your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Goodneſs in the Appointment of a Miniſtry, in whoſe Abilities and Integrity your People place the utmoſt Confidence.

We fervently pray that your Majeſty may long enjoy the Conſtitutional Support of a loyal and affectionate People.

The following Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Great Marlow, has been preſented to the King by William Clayton, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the ancient and loyal Borough of Great Marlow, in the County of Buckingham.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE are conſcious that we ought not, on ſlight Grounds, or trivial Occaſions, to intrude on your Majeſty's Repoſe; but now we think it our indiſpenſable Duty to expreſs our Gratitude for your Majeſty's Wiſdom and paternal Regard for the Welfare of your People, in diſmiſſing from your Councils the late Miniſtry, who, we conceive, (under the Maſk of Public Good) artfully and ambitiouſly graſped at the Diſpoſal of the Property and Power of an opulent Company, and endeavoured to annihilate Charters and Securities, ſolemnly confirmed by repeated Acts of the Legiſlature.

We alſo humbly and ſincerely thank your Majeſty for the legal and ſpirited Exerciſe of your undoubted Prerogative in the Appointment or Continuance of your Majeſty's Miniſters, notwithſtanding the daring appointed and deſperate Men, who appear to be endeavouring to eſtabliſh a Dictatorial Power, equally injurious to the Rights of the Crown, and the Liberties of the People.

From the well known and often experienced Virtues of our Gracious Sovereign, we confidently truſt that your Majeſty will perſevere, with Dignity and Firmneſs, in forming and ſupporting ſuch a fair, equal, and effective Adminiſtration, as may give Peace and Unanimity to this diſtracted Empire.

Unanimouſly done at a Public Meeting of the Inhabitants of Great Marlow aforeſaid, held according to a Requiſition of the Principal Inhabitants, at the Town Hall in the ſaid Borough, the Ninth Day of March, 1784.

The following Addreſs of the Freeholders, Freemen and Inhabitants of the Borough of Okehampton, has been preſented to the King by John Rolle, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of Devon, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Freeholders, Freemen and Inhabitants of the free and ancient Borough of Okehampton.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with the moſt profound Sentiments of Reſpect and Veneration, and to expreſs our moſt ſincere Attachment for your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government.

It is with the deepeſt Concern that we have lately beheld an obſtinate, though ſmall Majority, of One Branch of the Legiſlature, militating againſt the juſt and undoubted Prerogative of your Majeſty's Crown, and impeding the Public Buſineſs and Welfare of the Kingdom, at a Time when the critical Situation of our Country called for great and ſplendid Exertions, and afforded an ample Field for diſplaying the genuine Spirit of Patriotiſm.

We cannot but ſeriouſly lament that idle Punctilios have predominated over honeſt Principles; and that ill-founded Reſolutions formed in Haſte and Warmth, have been hitherto held as ſacred, and conſidered as ſufficient Obſtacles for oppoſing your Majeſty's Will, and the Wiſhes of your Subjects in general.

At this awful Moment nothing affords us greater Satisfaction than to find that your Majeſty, with that paternal Attention to your People which animates your Boſom, and with that Firmneſs and Magnanimity which becomes a Britiſh King, hath withſtood the Torrent of a Faction which ſeemed ready to deluge this Iſland with Deſtruction.

Amidſt the Plaudits of Millions, permit us alſo, moſt gracious Sovereign, to expreſs our high Senſe of the great Integrity and Abilities of thoſe Miniſters whom your Majeſty hath thought fit to place and continue in the firſt Departments of State.

We entertain the ſtrongeſt Confidence in the Sincerity of their Intentions to promote the Public Good, and to preſerve our Conſtitution inviolate. May your Majeſty's Reign be long and happy, and the Artful and Ambitious be taught to know that all their Attempts to diſturb the Repoſe of your Royal Mind, muſt be vain, whilſt guarded by the Loyalty and Affection of a brave and free People.

On all Occaſions your Majeſty may reſt aſſured that we ſhall be ready to ſupport the due Exerciſe of your Prerogative, that the Honour and Dignity of your Crown may be tranſmitted unſullied to your Majeſty's Poſterity.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, and other Principal Inhabitants of the Borough Town and Manor of Bideford, has been preſented to the King by John Clevland, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the Borough of Barnſtaple, being introduced ducted by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, and other Principal Inhabitants of the Borough Town and Manor of Bideford in the County of Devon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses and Principal Inhabitants of the said Borough Town and Manor of Bideford, in the Guildhall this Day assembled;

Considering it our indispensible Duty, at the present important Crisis, beg Leave to approach your Throne, to assure your Majesty of our most faithful and affectionate Attachment to your Royal Person and Government; and humbly to thank your Majesty for having exerted your Royal Prerogative in choosing your present Ministry, in whose Integrity we possess the fullest Confidence, and trust that they will devise and pursue such essential Measures, as may produce Happiness to your Majesty, and Welfare and Prosperity to this Kingdom.

Being fully sensible of your Majesty's paternal Wisdom and Goodness, we will always, to the utmost of our Abilities, support your Majesty in the due Execution of your Constitutional Authority; and sincerely pray the Almighty, that your Majesty may enjoy a long and happy Reign over a free and loyal People.

Witness our Hands, in the Guildhall of Bideford aforesaid, the 5th Day of March, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-four.

The following Address of the Bailiff, Burgesses, resident Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the Town of Stockbridge has been presented to the King by the Honourable Captain John Luttrell, and the Honourable Captain James Luttrell, Representatives in Parliament for the said Town, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiff, Burgesses, resident Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Stockbridge, (in our Public Hall assembled) whose Names are hereunto subscribed, and Town Seal affixed, this 25th Day of February, 1784.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Burgesses, resident Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the Town and ancient Borough of Stockbridge, beg Permission, (in Gratitude bound, and not attached to any Party) to thank your Majesty for your Royal Attention to the Good of your People, in dismissing from your Majesty's Councils the late Ministry. Your Majesty's Steadiness to support the Rights and Privileges of your People, and to preserve the just Prerogatives of your Crown, cannot but impress the Minds of all your loving Subjects with a Degree of Gratitude equal to their Abhorrence of the Violence of Men, who assumingly attempted to destroy the Chartered Rights of the East-India Company, from ambitious and tyrannic Motives, with an Intent to create an Influence dangerous to our happy Constitution. Though we regret the present unhappy Divisions, which impede the Public Business, we confide in the Conduct of your Majesty's present Ministers, and the Support of your People, to effectually maintain your Majesty's Crown and Dignity, and the Constitution inviolate. Animated by these Considerations, we rest in Confidence of your Majesty's Wisdom, in rejecting Men of such discordant Principles as formed your late Ministry, and employing such only who can justly claim the Confidence of your Majesty, and the Support of your People. We sincerely pray that your Majesty's Reign may be long, happy, and prosperous over a free People.

The following Address of the Burgesses, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Saltash, has been presented to the King by the Hon. Charles Jenkinson, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Burgesses, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Saltash, in the County of Cornwall, and its Environs, duly sensible of your Majesty's unremitting Care and paternal Regard for the Welfare of your People, beg Leave to approach your Throne, most humbly to assure your Majesty of our sincere and firm Attachment to your Royal Person, Family and Government; and of our Readiness at all Times to support your Majesty's constitutional and just Prerogatives, which, with heartfelt Dissatisfaction, we have lately seen most wantonly attacked. We thank your Majesty for persevering and firmly resisting the wicked Attempts and ambitious Views of a venal and corrupt Faction. And for your tender Concern for the Honour and Safety of these Realms, by wisely appointing Ministers, of whose Integrity the People at large entertain the most exalted Opinion, and in whose Wisdom and Abilities repose most entire Confidence.

That your Majesty may long reign over a free, united, and loyal People, is the Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Freeholders, Traders and Inhabitants of the Borough of Harwich, has been presented to the King by John Luther, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Essex, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty has been pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Freeholders, Traders, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Harwich in the County of Essex.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Freeholders, Traders and Inhabitants of Harwich, beg Leave to approach your Throne with the zealous Assurances of Loyalty to your Person, and Attachment to our excellent Constitution.

The peculiar Situation of this Kingdom at the present Moment we cannot reflect upon without representing the great Necessity there appears for the most diligent and active Endeavours of those Ministers, whom your Majesty has, in your great Wisdom, thought proper to intrust the Government of Public Affairs; and we ardently hope that such Measures will be pursued as may tend effectually to establish the Glory and Happiness of your Majesty's Reign, and the true Interests of all your Subjects.

The unjustifiable Attempts of your Majesty's late Ministers to subvert and destroy the Chartered Rights of our Fellow Subjects we beheld with the utmost Concern; but we are sincerely rejoiced at your Majesty's exercising your Royal Prerogative, in dismissing from your Counsels the Advisers of so dangerous a Measure: And we beg Leave to thank you, Sire, for appointing other Ministers, whom, we are persuaded, possess the Confidence of your Subjects.

That your Majesty may very long continue to reign over a free, happy, and loyal People, with your Royal and amiable Consort and numerous Offspring, is our invariable and fervent Prayer.
